

MAJ. J. F. FOARD DIES AT NATCHEZ

Formerly Lived Here and Was Well Known Throughout County

FRIENDS REGRET TO LEARN OF DEATH

Friends here have been advised of the death Maj. Joe F. Foard, aged 77, which occurred Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at his home at Natchez, Miss. The body will be placed in a vault there, and later be moved to Hopkinsville for interment.

Maj. Foard was well known in Hopkins County, where he was formerly prominent in business circles. He was owner and operator of the Hecla Coal Company, with mines at this place.

About thirteen years ago he moved to Mississippi, but is still remembered here by a large circle of friends, to whom the news of his death will come as a great shock.

During the four years of the civil war Maj. Foard fought under the colors of the Confederacy, enlisting from Kentucky as a member of Dabell's Cavalry, winning the rank of major and establishing a record for intrepid bravery. He was also prominent in Masonic circles.

Surviving relatives are a wife, formerly Miss Cornelia Young, of East Tennessee, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Knox Hume, of Nashville, and Mrs. William Wendel, of Murfreesboro. Mrs. Hume was at the bedside when the end came and will accompany the remains to Hopkinsville for burial.

INSURANCE COMPANIES CANNOT BE PROSECUTED IN FEDERAL COURTS

Supreme Court Decision Says Insurance is Not Interstate Commerce

ATTEMPT TO PUNISH COMPANIES FOR WITHDRAWING FROM KENTUCKY

Washington, Dec. 9.—The Supreme Court, many years ago in the case of Pantagist v. State of Virginia, held that insurance is not interstate commerce and may not be considered such under existing law, and for that reason Attorney General McReynolds advised Representative Barkley today that the eight-odd fire insurance companies which have withdrawn from Kentucky Dvelling house business in the past of a few weeks cannot be prosecuted by the Government.

A CARD

We wish to state, that we do not know, nor deem it any of our affairs, what our competitors catalogue cost.

We stated that W. E. Hollinger & Truempy, had saved at least $180.00 in getting out a catalogue and we have saved that much on the kind of catalogue we would have gotten out.

Invited to Dine.

His Wife (at the other end)—"Well, if you've already asked Mr. Law to dine with us, I suppose I'll manage somehow, but you know I don't like him." He (at this end)—"She says everything's all right, and she'll be tickled to death to see you."—Brown's Magazine.

Ladies' Aid Bazaar Great Success

The annual Bazaar given by the ladies of the Christian church Tuesday was the most successful they have yet had. The booths, beautifully decorated, contained articles of fancy work and swell garments, servicable and dainty. All day long this popular place was visited by ladies of this city and Madisonville eager to take advantage of the opportunity to supply themselves with Christmas gifts for their friends. When closing time came there was little left of the many things with which they began the day.

At the noon hour and supper time they served meals which were partaken of by many. Business men and families came and were delighted with the menu.

The receipts approximate $225, this evidencing the fact again that these women do nothing by halves. The social feature of the day was no small part of the enjoyment. Friends met friends; tarried and talked, and went away feeling satisfied they had taken time to get acquainted.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heart felt thanks to all who rendered assistance during the illness and death of our beloved mother and trust that we may find as many kind friends should sorrow ever visit them. Sincerely, Miss Minnie Goodell.

Samea "Devil Doctors" Being Fought By Clinics

Washington, Dec. 10.—To overcome the evil influence of "devil doctors" in Samea the commandant of the naval station at Tutuila has established clinics for the natives. As a result of "devil doctoring" Surgeon Gen. Stokes of the navy in his annual report, has pointed out that many deaths have occurred. The natives have responded to the efforts made to enlighten them in matters of medicine, hygiene and sanitation. Almost 3,000 were treated last year in the clinics at the Samoan Hospital. A school for the training of Samoan women in nursing also has been established and a systematic campaign will be waged to drive out the "devil doctors."

Ladies' Aid Society Elects Officers

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, South met in the Baraca room of the church yesterday afternoon and elected officers. A very interesting meeting was held and many plans were formulated for the coming year to raise money. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Y. Q. Walker, President; Mrs. Grace Vice President; Mrs. W. E. Martin, Sec'y and Treas.

Sum of Duty.
Do naught to other which, if done to thee, would cause thee pain; this is the sum of duty.—Mahabharata.

Making All Happy.

"What I deem an appropriate present is a book, and that I must choose for myself," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "To leave the selection to friends would be a catastrophe. Every year, therefore, on behalf of those generously minded individuals who have kindly thoughts toward me, I buy books for myself, tell them, and get the money refunded. And in the measure of monetary value they remember me, I likewise remember them—in any article of their own choosing. And we are all happy."

Until the Plumber Arrives.
While waiting for the arrival of a plumber, when the water pipes have sprung a leak, the housewife may do a little repairing herself. The water should be turned off and a solder made by mixing some whiting with common yellow soap and just enough water to form a thick paste. Apply this mixture to the leak and in a little while the water may be turned on very slowly. This solder may last a day or longer.

Cause of Fall of Bullet.
The resistance of the air and the attraction of gravitation cause a bullet or cannonball to end its flight and fall to the earth; these two forces operating together cause the projectile to describe a curve dependent on its initial velocity. The greater the speed at the beginning the farther it will go.

Itch! Itch! Itch! Scratch! Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch, the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. For eczema, any skin itching, 50c a box.

Blessings of Oblivion.
The reign of Antoninus is marked by the rare advantage of furnishing very few materials for history, which is indeed little more than the register of the crimes, follies and misfortunes of mankind.—Edward Gibbon.

Hookworm Needed Also.
"See that measuring worm crawling up my skirt!" cried Mrs. Bjelks. "That's a sign I'm going to have a few dress." "Well, let him make it for you," growled Mr. Bjelks. "And while he's about it, have him send a hookworm to do you up the back. I'm tired of the job."

More Caution Needed.
An exchange tells the story of a little boy whose mother decided that he was old enough to do without her sitting by him when he was put to bed until he fell asleep. So when one night she kissed the five-year-old and told him he was a big boy and brave enough to go to sleep without his mamma and in the dark, too, he pondered the situation a moment and then said: "Well, wait a minute. I've got to say my prayers again carefuler."—Suburban Life.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulators (25c per box) act mildly on the liver and bowels. At all drug stores.

Peppercorn Rent.
Mr. Staveley Hill, M. P., was at Rushbury paid a peppercorn as rent. The berry was placed in an envelope and handed to Mr. Staveley Hill during a visit he paid to the old village school. In handing over the receipt, he remarked that he was probably the only man in England who received such a payment in kind.—London Telegram.

Wife's Ashes as an Ornament.
An ingenious method of disposing of the ashes of a cremated body has to be recorded. After a woman had been cremated the husband took the ashes to a chemist for the purpose of extracting the iron, which he is now wearing set in his ring, as one would wear a diamond.

Brevity in Correspondence.
For brevity nothing can beat the correspondence between Victor Hugo and his publisher on the issue of "Les Misérables." Very busy but anxious to know how the book was selling, Hugo sent the publisher a card marked simply "T." The reply came back "T."

Simple Headache Remedy.
A nervous headache may frequently be cured by several slices of lemon in a cup of strong tea and a billous headache is almost invariably put to rout by a tablespoonful of lemon juice in a cup of black coffee.

To Clean a Gas Range.
The loose parts of a gas range frequently become so greasy and dirty that they can scarcely be cleaned. Place these parts on the coals in the furnace when the fire is low and it will quickly burn them quite clean without injury.

Not Like the National Game.
Geraldine—"Did you ever play keno games?" Gerald—"Yes, and I remember them as games that didn't have to be called on account of darkness."

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure.
The worst case, no matter how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Foster's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Itch at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

SHALL WE HAVE DWELL- ING INSURANCE

A dispatch from Washington,
printed in a Louisville paper
stating that a Supreme Court decision stands in the way of Federal court action against the fire insurance companies on account of their recent withdrawal from dwelling house business in Kentucky, uses the word "persecu-tated" instead of prosecuted. This will cause a knowing smile
among insurance men, who say that experience has proven the
dwelling house business in Kentucky costly to the companies and that they cannot at all afford to continue writing this class of insurance, if at the rates and the expense of making these rates as ordered by the Kentucky Insurance Commission. One insurance company that has been writing insurance in Kentucky more than a century, has withdrawn in a letter to agents expressing great regret. The statement is made that the insurance companies had rates made on dwelling property at a cost of $47,000, which rates reduced the dwelling rates in the State an average of 14 per cent; that the insurance commission refused to accept these rates and ordered all dwellings re-rated, which would cost another $47,000 and on a basis that, would reduce the rates another 11 per cent. The insurance companies decided they could not afford to incur

this additional expense and could not continue to write this class of business in Kentucky, if at the average reduction of 25 per cent in rates. The outcome cannot be guessed at this time, but it looks very much as if it will be difficult presently to secure safe insurance on dwellings, if the companies doing business in Kentucky, having been admitted to do business in the State because they were safe and sound, should generally withdraw from this business in Kentucky. The lines of insurance, other than dwellings, will of course continue to be protected as usual.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring back its gloss, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff—Try the moist cloth

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair, soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of
it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply
a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable
gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two week's use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—
sprouting out all over your scalp —Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer
of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is,
moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

FOREST NOTES

The forest of Florida contain 175 different kinds of wood.

There are seven spruces in the United States. Four are confined to the west; two to the east; while one, white spruce,
has continent wide distribution.

Sawmill waste of Douglas fir,
of which an enormous quantity
is found in the western forests,
is being used to make paper pulp
by a mill at Marshfield, Oregon.

In proportion to its weight,
California redwood is the strongest conifer so far tested at the U. S. forest products laboratory.
This strength is due to its long wood fibers.

The Philippine bureau of forestry reports that American and European lumbermen are trying to secure large and regular shipments of Philippine woods, mainly for cabinet making.

Experiment with various chemical extinguishers for fighting national forest fires have not been very successful. The unlimited supply of oxygen in the open, forest officers say, tends to neutralize the effect of the chemicals.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" makes you feel fine at once—Don't stay stuffed-up! Take it now

Relief comes instantly.
A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up
a severe cold either in the head,
chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

At Least the Majority.
"I am an opportunist," said a defendant in the New York supreme court. "I make money when I can."
Come to think of it, the world seems to be populated exclusively by opportunists.

Slight Mistake.
"I understand you went over to Crimson Gulch and lynched the wrong
man?" "No," replied Three-Flager Sam. "You can't lynch the wrong man in Crimson Gulch. We just got Pluta Peto a little bit ahead of his turn."

Some Good May Be Done.
I told something to a friend once and he replied, "Gee do you want a fellow to be perfect?" I said, "Yes, but I never expect to see one, but there's lots of rottenness which can be cut out of the efforts of all of us."

A SURPRISE SANTA CLAUS

HAROLD! Harold Barton!" called Sally's voice from the kitchen door. "Father says be sure to close and lock!"

"Oh, I know all about it," called Harold from the barn door. "Don't bother your head about me." He turned his back and stalked into the barn, carrying a big basket filled with holly, fir boughs and mistletoe. Harold was to dress the Christmas tree and decorate the barn, for the tree was too large for the house, and the barn, which was well built, had been fitted up with stores.

Harold and Bert Fenn put the last touches to the decorations and the tree just as the supper bell rang the day before Christmas. Dinner was early, as some consins were to come in the evening and they had to be met at the station four miles away.

The Bentons lived on the edge of a town at the foot of a thickly wooded mountain that sheltered many a wild animal and often human beings almost as wild.

The consins came and soon were safely tucked away in the beds and on the sofas that were not used by the uncles and aunts, and all was quiet.

Two persons were not asleep, though. Sally was thinking: "I wonder if Harold did lock the barn up well—with all our beautiful presents there. Suppose some of the woods tramps should break in. Oh, dear, I wish morning were here!"

Harold also, rolled up on a mattress on the garret floor, remembered that, although he had locked the large doors, he had not thought about the little door, and he could not remember whether it was fastened.

Morning dawned bright and crisp. Harold helped the gardener build the fires in the stoves in the barn and then waited impatiently for Uncle John, who had promised to act as Santa Claus and who could not get there until the last moment. The train arrived without Uncle John, and the smaller children were beginning to fret at the delay. So it was finally decided that they would have to do without a Santa Claus, for Uncle John had always taken that part, and no one could be persuaded to take his place.

The candles were lighted, and the family and guests trooped over to the barn. Such cries of surprise and delight there were when the big tree stood before them in a blaze of glory! When the "ohs" and "ahs" had died away a little, Harold started to make an apology for the absence of Santa.

"Santa Claus was detain!" he began, when a whistling sound and then a knocking noise like sleighbells came from the tree.

He stopped in astonishment. Every one else heard the noise, too, and thirty-two pairs of eyes were turned toward the tree.

Certainly something was moving in the tree. The branches toward the center shook, though no one touched the tree, and as every one watched breathlessly the branches parted, and the queerest little figure you ever saw pushed its way out and stood on a limb, bowing politely right and left. It was about two feet high, with long flowing white beard and hair and dressed just as you always expect to see Santa Claus.

The children looked up in open mouthed astonishment. Harold among them, and the grownups, with puzzled expressions, were trying to solve the mystery when another sharp little whistle was heard, and the tiny Santa Claus, using his hands and feet with much skill, climbed down a branch or two, in so doing he turned his back and showed a long brown tail beneath his coat.

Then there was a shout of laughter, with clapping of hands, and the children fairly danced with joy as the small Santa Claus, sitting demurely on a branch, took hold of a very pretty pink and white dolly and, after examining her wax face closely, blessed her lovingly. At this there was a louder roar of laughter, in the midst of which a gruff voice called out:

"Here, you beggar! Let it alone!"

This voice came from the hayloft, and when the thirty-two pairs of eyes turned immediately to see who spoke they saw two pairs of legs hanging over the edge of the loft and two bearded faces peering down.

The two bearded men came down, one swinging from the beam and the other climbing down the ladder. Harold, with an exclamation of delight, flung both arms about the most hay-seedy looking one.

They every one exclaimed, "Why, Uncle John!" And Uncle John laughingly explained that he and a friend, whom he introduced as Mr. Whitman, had arrived on the midnight train and, as they did not wish to disturb the family, had tried the barn doors. Then they had decided upon this surprise.

"And the Santa Claus monkey is himself a present for you, Harold," said Uncle John, with a twinkle in his eye.

A KIND FAMILY'S CHRISTMAS GIFT

ONCE, long ago, in the mountains of southern France, there lived a poor but honest family of a father, mother and two children. The father was named Adam and the mother Hannah. The son, Peter, was twelve years of age, and the daughter, Esther, was only nine.

Father Adam was an honest, hard-working man. On the steep sides of the mountains he kept his sheep and a cow, and in a little valley that lay between the mountains Mother Hannah made a garden, tilling the soil by her own hands, with the aid of a few simple gardening tools. And her son Peter gave her what assistance a boy of his years could give. Esther kept the little thatched cottage tidy and clean, preparing the meals for the three workers who were out of doors most of the day and who came in at night from their toil very, very tired.

But they never grumbled at their lot, for they had hopes that Fortune would smile on them some time. And she did—in the form of a fairy.

One morning the day before Christmas Father Adam and family sat around their plain wooden table eating mush and milk. Adam spoke.

"Tis the holy time of Christmas, mother," he said, "and we should do an act of charity toward some one poorer than ourselves, even though it should be giving ever and ever so small a gift. The Lord gave his life for sufferers in his name on the day of his Nativity. What say you, mother?"

"You are right," agreed Mother Hannah. "There is the Widow David, who stands in great need. She has two children, and the wolves get among her sheep and killed three of the finest. She is trying hard to keep her children and herself. What say you to our sending her a bag of wheat and a small cheese?"

"Very good, mother," agreed Father Adam. "And as I shall have to watch the sheep and cow either Peter or Esther shall take the wheat and cheese to Widow David's cot."

"I'll go," offered Esther, "for Peter and mother are digging up the ground for the planting of vines in the spring."

So it was agreed that Esther should take the dogcart and make the journey over the mountain to the cottage of the Widow David. As soon as breakfast was over Esther tidied up the house and placed the noon meal—a loaf of bread, a jug of homemade wine and a small cheese—on the table.

"Mother and Peter will be hungry after the forenoon spent in the garden," she said. "Poor father always carries his bread and cheese in his pocket and eats as he herds the sheep."

"Now, before going I shall fix the fire to hold till noonday; otherwise the house will be cold on mother's and Peter's return."

So saying, Esther picked up a huge log that lay beside the fireplace. "Ah, this is the log father said should burn our Christmas eve fire. It will soon be Christmas eve, and I'll throw the log on the flame and have the house cheery on the return of the dear ones."

But just as Esther was lifting one end of the heavy log—the fule log—a flash of light leaped from the farther end and caused Esther to close her eyes. When she opened them again there before her stood a fairy. "Ah! I have come to bring you some Christmas cheer," said the fairy. "Your parents are good and deserving folk. They were robbing their labor to help the needy widow. So here is a bit of good fortune for you and yours, little helpful maid. Take of it for yourselves and for those about you who are in need." Then, before Esther could reply, the fairy had disappeared, leaving on the hearth a bag of gold.

The little girl ran out and called in her parents and brother. When the father looked into the big bag of gold he said that there was enough there to keep them all in comfort for the rest of their lives and with which to help their less fortunate neighbors as well.

"And, you may be sure there was a merry Christmas for the family, with many good wishes for the kind fairy."

Forget Them.

Gather up all thy sins—old wrongs, old hatreds, burning angers, memories of men's treachery; stuff them into a bag and heave them into the gulf of oblivion. Your life is not in the past, but in the future. "We are saved by hope."—New Dwight Hillis, D.D.

Daily Thought.

Discontent is want of self-reliance; it is infirmity of will.—Emerson.

Now We Know.

Bon—"Why do people say 'Dame Gossip'?" Father—"Because they are too polite to leave off the 'a'."—Le Grappa.

Pomp in the East.

"I understand the king of Siam has a white elephant." "Yes, and it gave him great prestige until the king of Cambodia visited Europe. He brought back a second-hand taxicab."

Worried Hero.

A critic of Wells' novel, "Marriage Ends in the confounding of the hero," the desire to have it all ways; to possess a woman who shall have all the charm and the caprice of the eternal feminine; who shall, by the grossness of her desires and the pettiness of conversation, give him an agreeable sense of superiority, and yet shall, to order, acquire deep spiritual insight when her husband feels he needs it."

Love.

An English publication offers a guinea for a personal proposal. Evidently the editor belongs to the bar pain-hunting sex.

Last Resort.

"Do you believe in platonic friendship?" he asked. "Not," she replied, "as long as there is a chance for anything else."—Chicago Record-Herald.

When a Public Official
"When a public servant is doing something he ought not to, he always seems to derive a lot of satisfaction from pretending that his motives are misunderstood," says an Ohio paper. That isn't what he says. He says: "I have no desire to try my case in the newspapers."

More "Breeches" Bids.

A "breeches" Bible, dated 1601, was recently bequeathed by Dr. William P. G. Black of Dublin to his brother, the Rev. Gibson J. H. M. Black. This is the translation in which Adam and Eve are described as making themselves "breeches" of figleaves. The authorized version uses the word "aprons."

Bachelor's Savage Comment.

A wealthy gentleman, who owns a country seat, on one occasion nearly lost his mother-in-law, who fell into a river which flows through his estate. He announced the narrow escape to his friends, expecting their congratulations. One of them—an old bachelor—wrote as follows: "I always told you that river was too shallow."

No Hurry for That Vehicle.

A short-sighted old lady in a hurry to mount a tram car held up her umbrella and shouted to the driver of a passing vehicle, "Stop. Stop!" to which the driver replied, "Don't be in a hurry, mum; it ain't your car yet." It was a hoarse.

WHENEVER YOU NEED A GENERAL TONIC - TAKE GROVE'S

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is Equally Valuable as a General Tonic because it Acts on the Liver, Drives Out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. For Grown People and Children.

You know what you are taking when you take Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic as the formula is printed on every label showing that it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic and is in Tasteless Form. It has no equal for Malaria, Chills and Fever, Weakness, general debility and loss of appetite. Gives life and vigor to Nursing Mothers and Pale, Sickly Children. Removes Biliousness without purging. Relieves nervous depression and low spirits. Arouses the liver to action and purifies the blood. A True Tonic and Sure Appetizer. A Complete Strengthening. No family should be without it. Consult your Druggist. We mean it. 50c.

Dickens Most Widely Known.

If it be true to say of any author that everybody has read him, that author is Dickens. He is more of a national institution today than Shakespeare, whose works, praised and perverted, explained and darkened, by an amazing mass of commentators today, are not, in our experience, really known to the average reader.—London Athenaeum.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

Snubbed "Iron Duke."

The Duke of Wellington, who had a taste for anything that Napoleon had liked, applied to David the artist, who had painted Napoleon's portrait, requesting David to execute one of himself. "Sir," replied David, "I paint only historical characters."

Fletcherizing a Fortune.

A St. Louis man made $64,000 as a ragpicker. Lots of men have made more than that out of rags—chewing them on the lecture platform.—Milwaukee Sentinel

When Buying Baking Powder

For this is the baking powder
that makes "the baking better."

It leavens the food evenly
throughout; puffs
it up to airy lightness, makes it delightfully appetizing
and wholesome.

Remember—Calumet
is moderate in price,
highest in quality.

Ask your grocer for Calumet. Don't take a substitute.

Received Highest Awards

World's Fair Food Exposition,
Chicago, Illinois, 1904; Exposition,
France, 1905.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results.
Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

Took Mother Literally.

Marian pointed to the glass or cup when she wished a drink, uttering inarticulate sounds intended to convey her desire. She was old enough to talk some, but she had never been taught to ask for a drink.
Mother said to her: "When you want a drink, Marian, you say, 'Mamma, or papa, or Hazel, or Mildred, drink.'"
The next time Marian wished a drink
she pointed to the cup and said:
"Mamma, papa, Hazel, Mildred, drink-ink-ink-ink-ink!"

For Weakness and Loss of Appetite
The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out malaria and builds up the system. A true tonic and sure Annetizer. For adults and children.

Why Snow is Warm.

Snow is warm by virtue of its light and woolly texture. But it is also warm on account of its whiteness.
Had snow been black it would have absorbed the heat of the sun and melted quickly. Instead, it reflects heat, and the reflected heat falls upon bodies above the snow, while the warmth of the earth is preserved beneath.

Real Friend.

There is one friend who will never fail you while you have hands to move and a brain to plan. In your dreariest hours she will be your sweet refuge, and in times of prosperity she will guard you from the pride which goeth before a fall. She will bring you long nights of restful sleep at the end of your busy days and when other friends grow careless or disdainful,
she will absorb you more and more.
Her name is Work, and neither the highest nor the lowest can be happy for long without her.

Cures Old Sores, Ulcer Remedies Won't Cure.
The worst cases, no matter how long standing,
are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr.
Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves pain and promotes healing.

College Secret.

Bacon—What did your boy learn at college? Egbert—Says he can't tell me. Bacon—Why not? Egbert—
Says it's a secret. Bacon—Nonsense!
Egbert—No. You know, he learned the football signals.

HOT or COLD FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

If you are going on an auto trip, or even if you are staying at home you will find time when you will want to keep a liquid either hot or cold without going to the trouble at the time of either heating or icing it. It's the genius of either heat or cold. With a Thermos Bottle, you can serve hot drinks, piping hot, twenty-four hours after they have been heated. Same's true of cold drinks. A Thermos Bottle makes an elegant gift. $1.25 and up.

Self-Knowledge.

Suffer me to recommend to you one of the most useful lessons of life, the knowledge and study of yourself.
There you run the greatest hazard of being deceived. Self-love and partiality cast a mist before the eyes, and there is no knowledge so hard to be acquired, nor of more benefit when once thoroughly understood.—Abigail Adams to Her Son.

Domestic Economist.

An excellent Manchester lady frequently writes her friends to tea, but she does not furnish her table lavishly. When her guests have eaten all the bread and butter and cookies, and realize that the dinner is over, she looks brightly at the empty dishes. "Well,
now," she says, in triumphant tones,
"have!" I judge your appetites are satiety! Manchester Guardian

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from some form of feminine disorder is told that an operation is necessary, it of course frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital operating table and the surgeon's knife strikes terror to her heart, and no wonder.
It is quite true that some of these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but thousands of women have avoided the necessity of an operation by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This fact is attested by the grateful letters they write to us after their health has been restored.

These Two Women Prove Our Claim.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago
I found myself a terrible sufferer.
I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."
—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Me.

Charlotte, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. If I even lifted a chair it would cause a hemorrhage. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health and am the mother of a nice baby girl.
You can use this letter to help other suffering women."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Wyona St., Charlotte, N. C.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman submit to a surgical operation without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.
Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.
(CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice.
Your letter will be opened, read and answered
by a woman and held in strict confidence.

TO MAKE YOUR HAIR MORE BEAUTIFUL

To give your hair that gloss and lustre and wavy silky softness, use Harmony Hair Beautifier. It takes away the dull dead look of the hair, and makes it bright—turns the stringiness into fluffiness—overcome the only odors and leaves a sweet, true-rose fragrance—makes the hair easier to put up neatly and easier to keep in place. It is just exactly what it is named—a hair beautifier, and whether your hair is ugly now or beautiful, it will improve its appearance. You'll be proud of and delighted with the results, or your money back. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change the color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure, liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, because it gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off instantly quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier $1.00. Harmony Shampoo 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Title of Pope.
It is uncertain when the title pope was first used. The earliest instance we can cite, is that of Heraclius, Patriarch of Alexandria, in 222. It is still the ordinary title of parish priests in the eastern Greek church in the west, it continued for several centuries to be applied to bishops generally, but it was restricted to the Roman pontiff by Gregory VII. in a synod, held at Rome in 1073.

Figures of Speech.
That the "pen is mightier than the sword" is amply proven in the recent purchases of an old book for $50,000 and the saber of Napoleon for $65.—Salt Lake Herald

"Symptoms."
Occasionally an afflicted lady tells why she left her husband. For the married man, of some introspection and conscience, the feeling produced by the recital is something like the feeling one used to have in reading the patent medicine list of "symptoms." He used to feel that he had him and deserved the treatment.

Bad Both Ways.
Knicker—"It is terrible the way parents make their babies work at night." Youngpoo—"And it is terrible the way babies make their parents work at night."—New York Sun.

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS "CASCARETS."

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep

Get a 10 cent box. Take a Cascaret to-night to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggists means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Crossing the Bridge.
The trouble about crossing the bridge before you come to it is that you will have to cross it just the same when you get there.

Persian Maxim.
Be not all sugar, or the world will gulp thee down; nor yet all wormwood or the world will spit thee out.

Diplomatic.
Mrs. Benham—"Did you discharge the cook?" Benham—"No; I requested her resignation."

CAN YOU DOUBT IT?
When the Proof Can be so Easily Investigated

When so many grateful citizens of this locality testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of Nortonville says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you demand more convincing testimony.

T. J. Pool, Nortonville, Ky., says: "I had kidney trouble for about ten years. My back ached at night and I was lame in the morning. I tired easily, was drowsy and had headaches and dizzy spells. My sight was also affected. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and contained sediment. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and a few doses relieved me. They have given me more relief than any other remedy I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
